While standing at the lunch counter Bushong displayed his roll of money. The three men were standing no or by and modification in the particle of the land of the land his friend. A quarrel ensued and when Bushong started home, the three men of lowed him. At the alley all three fell upon him and, after beating him and going through his pockets, they fled Bushong went home and told his wife that he had been held up and assaulted.

He threw himself upon the bed and his wife went out to find a policeman. After an hour's search she finally discovered two officers and they went to Bushong a house and he accompanied them to the place where he said he had been held up. On the way he compisitined of a stiffness in his fright side. Upon opening his coat he discovered that his shirt was covered with blood. The officers summoned an ambusine, in which the injured man was hurried to the City Hospital.
